NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST FROM THE WORLD AT LARGE.

THURSDAY.

Germany's operations, which seem to be shaping themselves for another sweep toward Paris, met with a setback yesterday, when the right wing in Northern France was pressed back by the allied forces. None of the official reports last night was detailed enough, however, to give any idea of what was going on in the theaters of war. The Germans are all about Ostend, and German aeroplanes have already flown over the seaside resort of Belgium. The heavy siege guns and other offensive equipment are believed to have been taken from Antwerp to the southern wing of the army in an attempt to level Belfort, one of the strongest of the French fortifications.

The Berlin report last night states that the German-Austrian forces going to the relief of Przemyśl have encircled the besiegers and made the attack impossible for the Russians. Another force of Russians was routed, it is said, and many were drowned when bridges across the San gave way. The loss of two German submarines is denied.

According to official advices in London, Portugal has not declared war, but mobilization will be ordered in that country to-day and action will be taken for the Allies.

The Government of Belgium has been established at Havre and all official business of the war swept nation is being transacted from the French seaport. A plan has been set on foot by the American Relief Committee in London to repatriate all the Belgians now exiled in Holland and England.

Scores of wounded soldiers are being brought into Ostend from Ghent. It is reported that the Allies and the Germans engaged in a serious battle near Ghent on Monday. It is said that the German forces were far superior in numbers and that the Allies were obliged to withdraw toward the West. This removed the stumbling block in the way of German progress toward Ostend.

A Vienna statement says that the Russians have evacuated Lemberg and that this point is once more in Austrian hands.

With the War Revenue Bill under review by the Democrats of the Senate Finance Committee, little progress was made on the measure in the Senate, and the prospect for early adjournment of Congress grew more unpromising.

Service of old-time hymns to "musical hall" tunes was deplored by Bishop Edward Osborne, of Springfield, Ill., at a meeting of the synod of the Fifth Province of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, held at Detroit.

Berlin. It is stated from other sources that the Germans, with the aid of the big guns which have just been constructed, have to keep the British fleet away from the Belgian seacoast and thus cover their land operations successfully.

A German submarine sank the English cruiser Hawke on Thursday. The English vessel went down almost immediately after being hit, and other warships near were prevented by the new ruling from going to the rescue. It is believed that over 300 of the crew and officers were drowned as only a few have been heard from.

On the left wing and in the Vosges the day for the French and English troops. It is reported that the Allies have retaken Laventie and Lille from the Germans, and if this is true the right wing of the Germans is being pushed steadily back toward the Belgian frontier. In the Vosges the Germans are said to have been repulsed with heavy losses in an attempt to break through the French line.

Neither the French nor the English have as yet admitted the fall of this tide, but it is not supposed that they were prepared to make any strenuous defense at that point. It is known that the Allies are entrenched farther down the Belgian coast.

According to reports that have reached Italy cholera has spread greatly among the troops and inhabitants of Gallia in the past few days. In some sections of Hungary thousands are said to have died, and many more are contracting the disease each day.

Apparent losses aggregating many millions in the acquisition of the Erie and the Chicago & Alton roads and in other transactions were disclosed at the hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission's investigation of the financial operations of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railways.

With the agreement reached yesterday to vote on the War Revenue Bill in the Senate to-day, leaders of Congress expect to reach adjournment next week.

MAJ. GEN. W. H. HALDEMAN was re-elected Commander of the Kentucky Division, United Confederate Veterans, at the annual reunion at Pewee Valley.

SUNDAY.

Following up the capture of Ostend, the Germans are said to be pressing on toward Dunkirk, and several German aeroplanes have already flown over the city. A great number of military supplies are said to have been seized by the Germans at Ostend and Bruges. The spoils included guns, ammunition and 200 locomotives. Prince Oscar son of the German Emperor, who was forced to leave the army some time ago on account of heart trouble, is said not to be improving rapidly.

The Germans have laid mines in the River Scheldt, according to Dutch reports. It is reported at Athens that the Germans have furnished the Turkish Government with money to carry on the mobilization.

A British cruiser and four torpedo boats have sunk four German torpedo boat destroyers, according to the statement given out by the British Admiralty. One British officer and four men were wounded in the engagement, and there are thirty-one German prisoners of war on the live vessels. No serious damage was inflicted to the British warships.

The latest official list of casualties in the British army reports the death of Maj. Gen. Hubert I. W. Hamilton, commander of the Third Division of the British expeditionary forces, who was mentioned several times in the reports of Sir John French.

The Holboed American liner Noordam, which left New York October 6, is said to have hit a mine in the English channel, injuring seven persons.

The capture of Farnham by the allied army is reported in the French official communication last night. It is also stated that the Germans have been repulsed in a battle along the Ypres Canal to the sea. Parisians are once more beginning to fear that the Germans will attempt to take the capital. It is stated in the dispatches from France that the Germans have been unable to make any progress in the South.

It is reported from Berlin that the Austrians have succeeded in driving the Russians out of Marmaros, and that of the immense invading army which entered Hungary only 4,000 now remain. Both sides report the activity at present existing in the Province of Suwalki, but it is thought that both vast armies are being placed for a decisive battle in Poland. Around Warsaw it is stated that the Russians have been able to break the German advance and throw the enemy back several miles.

The Administration War Revenue Bill, levying approximately $100,000,000 additional taxes, was passed by the Senate last night, 34 to 22, after Southern Democrats in coalition with Republicans fought to postpone consideration because cotton relief legislation had been ineffectively defeated.

The amount of money expended annually for drugs in the United States is out of all proportion to the requirements of the people, according to the public health service.

MONDAY.

What in previous wars regarded now merely as incidents, occurred along the eastern wing of the Allies on the French battle front. Along the entrenched line where the armies have been face to face for six weeks, nothing but a desultory bombardment occurred yesterday.

A report from Berlin says that all signs indicate that a blow to the allied forces will be made by the Germans. The Germans are said to have been repulsed with heavy losses in an attempt to break through the French line.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

HOW I FEED IN WINTER FOR FERTILE EGGS IN SPRING.

(Mrs. T. H. Hayden, Owensboro, Ky.) Perhaps every poultryman, no matter how long he may have been in the business or how much he or she may know about the hatching and raising, has at one time or another experienced a poor season, and is unable to tell the reason. I have been a breeder for twelve years, and some years would have a very poor season, that is, I would have a large number of unfertile eggs, chicks would die in shell and many die after hatching on account of poor vitality. But I will state before going further that I have had exceptionally good luck this year, fertility running high and eggs hatched well. I think this due to the way I fed last winter for spring breeders. In the first place, I decided to use nothing but strong, vigorous male birds while selecting my birds for breeding purposes last fall. During the winter months I used a system of feeding that I think had more to do with the results in the spring than anything else.

All the grain they had to eat was scattered in litter from four to six inches deep, so the birds were obliged to work for it. This method required them to keep knocking and scratching about all day. At night I fed very sparingly of parched corn, as too much grain will give an over-supply of fat. I give plenty of grit, charcoal and fresh water and a warm mash once a day. I got eggs, lots of them, all winter. And instead of having overfat hens and pullets when I mated up my pens in the spring, I had my stock in good condition, none of them being overfat. After they were mated I continued to make them work for their living feed, not only a limited amount of grain, and that buried in the ground to the depth of six to eight inches. The birds would follow me, thinking they had not been fed, but in a short time they would begin digging in the fresh dirt after they found one grain, they would continue in this way until time to go to roost. This afforded exercise, they would not have if I had put the grain on the ground. In addition to this, I feed them green corn twice a week three times a day during the breeding season, also sprouted oats every day.

Instead of moping around, my birds were always hungry and ready to eat at meal time. From these results I have come to the conclusion that, in order to obtain fertile eggs and have good hatches, it is absolutely necessary to breed from none but strong, vigorous stock, avoiding getting them too fat during the winter months, and keep them active during the breeding season. I believe that many of the poor hatches, and dead chicks afterwards, is due to poor vitality, the result of too closely brooding. When some of these suggestions are followed, there is no reason why there should be any complaint regarding infertile eggs and poor hatches. Kentucky Farming.

SHEEP IN THE CORN FIELD.

J. W. Netherton, Jefferson county, keeps a fine band of sheep. He winters them principally on ensilage and raises many of the finest spring lambs. A crop that is peculiar to this State, but not at his home and found his farm management was excellent. For instance, one large field consisted of potatoes and corn and his flock of sheep was given the run of this whole field. The potatoes were matured, but had not been dug, and naturally some weeds were present, these the sheep devoured greedily. They would go from these weeds in potatoes to those in the corn, not injuring either the corn or potatoes, but destroying thousands of weeds and preventing seed being formed. The corn was not hurt by the sheep at all, that being well matured also. Mr. Netherton's whole farm is remarkably free from weeds, largely owing to using his sheep as scavengers. Through his sheep he has all the weeds are turned into mutton and manure. We put this good farm management—Kentucky Farming.

M. FULKERSON, Lo

IF YOUR SKIN ITCHES AND BREAKS OUT JUST APPLY SULPHUR

Get ounce of bold-sulphur and heal
Eczema eruptions right up.

For years, common bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections, by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasiticide, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin.

The moment you apply it to an itching or broken out skin the itching stops and the healing begins, says a noted dermatologist. Just common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt and remarkable results, even in aggravated Eczema that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subside the angry itching and irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin. Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur which should be applied to the irritated or inflamed parts, like the ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the eruption is accompanied with itching.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Dunderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dunderine—any drug store recommends it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, softness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—growing all over your scalp—Dandruff is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp—it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Dunderine and carefully draw it through your hair—using one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

PRINCESS.

Our village was shaken last Thursday night by the news of the death of Ben Meade, aged 46, which occurred in the mines at Van Lear, Ky., by reason of a slate fall. The body arrived here on the 7:00 o'clock train Saturday.

A very successful program was rendered. One of the most striking features was a debate by Princess school girls and Boyd county teachers. The subject was "Are the Mental Capacities of the Sexes Equal?" The affirmative were: Edith Price, Talmage Williams and Pauline Carter. The negative: Martha Hunt, Myrtle Mayo and E. H. Jackson. The affirmative were victorious. Another striking feature of the program was a story by Hazel Mayo Ross. Although Miss Ross is only three years old, she spoke better than many of the older ones. In the afternoon there was a ball game between Princess and Cannonsburg. The game tied. Dinner on the grounds. Everyone present pronounced it one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

Rev. Phillips, of the Baptist Church, filled the pulpit here Saturday and Sunday. His congregations are steadily growing and much interest is being manifested in these monthly meetings. The Sunday School is succeeding most admirably under the leadership of James Fitch, now serving his third year as Supr. The success of the school shows him to be one of the best Sunday School Superintendents to be found anywhere.

Rev. C. C. Criswell, of the Methodist Church, will be here next Saturday and Sunday, at which time he will be accompanied by the District Supr. Rev. Phanner, who will conduct the quarterly meeting service.

Chas. Robinson and wife were guests Sunday of Mrs. Robinson's parents, Jack Hall and wife.

Misses Irene Carter, Martha Sturgill, Lizzie Heaton and Esther Clare, all teachers, attended the district teachers' association at Summit last Saturday.

C. V. Bartels, of the Princess Coal Co., was a business visitor in the city of Huntington last Saturday.

James Gilliam, a resident of this vicinity for fifteen years, is moving this week to Logan, W. Va.

John and Gilbert Gullet returned to their labors at Logan last week, after having spent some time in the hospital caring for their brother, whose untimely death by typhoid fever has been mentioned in the NEWS by a Canton writer.

It is reported that Alva and Clyde Moore, 14 and 12, sons of A. R. Moore, have typhoid fever. It is to be hoped this rumor is not true.

James Kelley and son Millard, after an absence among the West Virginia hills of three months, returned home last Sunday morning.

DARLING.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, constipated, give
"California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipating waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is often all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY.G. W. Castle, of Lawrence county, announces his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney for the 32nd Judicial District, primary election in August 1915, earnestly requesting the support of all Democrats of the district.We are authorized to announce JOHN M. WAUGH as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney of the 32nd Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the primary of August, 1915.We are authorized to announce W. D. O'NEAL, JR., as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Judge of the 32nd Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.We are authorized to announce JUDGE M. M. REDWINE as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the district
composed of Lawrence, Elliott, Carter and Morgan counties, subject to the action of the Democrats in the primary election the first Saturday in August, 1915.The newspaper that quotes the "Chin-oisat Enquirer as Democratic authority makes a mistake in its estimate.Wouldn't you walk 20 miles to vote for Woodrow Wilson just now? There are millions of loyal Americans who would do so. He asks you to vote for the Democratic candidates for U. S.
Senate and Congress, so that he may complete his program for the freedom of the masses, the freedom of the small business man, and the peace of the nation and the world.The first time in your life that you are to have an opportunity to vote direct for the election of a United States Senator will be on Tuesday, November 3, 1914. The Legislatures have heretofore done this, but at last the Democratic doctrine of letting the great common people elect is coming into effect. This date is only one week from next Tuesday. Don't miss this first chance, you Democrat.Gratifying reports come from Lexington to the effect that the Democrats
there are united for the whole ticket
and that they will support Governor Beckham and Senator Camden with united unanimity. Although Governor Beckham lost Fayette county in the primary he has many warm friends
there who have always supported him.
The Lexington Democrats fight hard,
but when the primaries are over they get in line for the nominees and do their full duty.An era of peace with foreign nations
and prosperity at home was predicted
in Representative Underwood's reply to President Wilson for his letter praising the achievements of the Democrats in Congress. Mr. Underwood attributed what had been accomplished in Congress largely to the "President's magnificent leadership."It is up to the people of Kentucky to show their appreciation of the President's "magnificent statesmanship" by electing the entire Democratic ticket by an overwhelming majority.Governor Beckham has always been the friend of Wm. Jennings Bryan. He supported him in his three races for the Presidency, not only in the conventions that nominated him, but in hundreds of speeches delivered in the Baltimore convention, and the presence of the Secretary of State to Kentucky at this time is a personal commitment to Governor Beckham. Not even the President has a greater following in Kentucky than Mr. Bryan.
He is the idol of thousands of Democrats who admire his courage and his ability. The presence of Mr. Bryan in Kentucky will bring thousands of votes to the entire Democratic ticket. He brings a message from the President appealing for two Democratic Senators from Kentucky and that prayer will be answered in November.It is natural that there should be some ill feeling after a prolonged and bitter fight for the Senatorial nomination, but the feeling engendered by that contest has rapidly passed away
and all classes of Democrats are working together for the success of the ticket. Governor McCreary presided at the Somerset meeting and will make other speeches during the campaign. He is heartily for the whole ticket and his influence in being widely spread. Congressman Stanley made a speech at Carrollton the other day,
and everywhere he stands
and art are in place.number of other speeches between now and November and his friends are following his example in party loyalty.
There is a general desire to roll up a big majority this year, not only as an endorsement of the President and his policies, but that next year the Democrats may elect the Governor and the entire State ticket.One would think these Republican stump speakers had never heard of the European war and are absolutely ignorant of the effect in this country.
They pretend to think all the trouble in the world is being caused by the reduced tariff. They insult the intelligence of their audiences by such clatter.This is not a local fight in Kentucky
this year. It is a national contest fought out on lines that affect the whole country, its security and prosperity. It is no time to rebuke and punish any individual democrat if he stands by the President. This is not a partisan appeal, but it does address itself to the loyalty of every true Democrat. Let us stand by the national administration this year, and next year
when we have a State election we can settle our party differences in the primary and then join hands against the common enemy.President Roosevelt is urging his followers everywhere to stand by the "progressive" nominees for Congress and for the Senate. He says that no true
"progressive" will vote for a Republican because that only gives comfort to the enemy. He charges that the Republican party is still in the hands of old corrupt bosses like Barnes in New York and Penrose in Pennsylvania and that no good can come from an alliance with them. President Roosevelt will make a number of speeches in New York, Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky;
wherever he has appeared he has received a tremendous ovation and his popularity has not in any way diminished.That William Jennings Bryan is strong with the people was impressed upon those who went along on the special train that carried the Nebraska
an on his speaking trip in Kentucky Thursday. To see thousands of people standing in a drizzling rain for half an hour to drink in the words that fell from the lips of the great American struck those who witnessed it as a splendid tribute to Mr. Bryan and testified to the strong hold he has on the people. In the crowd that heard him were hundreds of women, who, apparently oblivious of the downpour, heard what he had to say and crowded up to the car platform to shake the Com-moner's hand. Louisville Times.The voters of the Tenth district, regardless of politics, should unite to re-elect John Langley from Congress on the first Tuesday in November. He has been there a long time. He is absolutely out of harmony with the administration, and therefore can do nothing for his district. Try Tom Hatcher. He is active and sober and capable and will get what is needed for the district, because he is in line with the powers at Washington and at Frankfort. Also, he is deeply interested in the development of Eastern Kentucky and has been working for years right along this line. Give Langley a rest and if the Republicans should ever
by any chance come back into power,
John will be running for re-election and it will then be time enough to decide whether or not you want anyone of him and his promises.This is a Democratic year everywhere. Early in President Wilson's administration when the Tariff Bill and the Revenue Bill were up for discussion there was some feeling among business men that too much legislation was being attempted, but now that these measures have been enacted into law the country is determined to give President Wilson's policies a fair trial.
The Democratic majority in Congress will be continued for the reason that any change in National affairs at this time would be disastrous. Men of all parties have confidence in President Wilson's patriotism and judgment, especially at this critical time when the very wisest management is needed to save the country from disaster. President Wilson deserves a vote of confidence and he will get it not only in Kentucky but in every other State where the issue has been raised.Governor McCreary is one of the old time Democrats who never suke or show any bitterness. He makes the best light possible and if he is beaten, he immediately gets in line for the nominee and does his best to secure his election. In this contest the Governor is enthusiastic for all the nominees and there are many reports of the "Speckers' Bureau" from various parts of the State to have the Governor address the voters. His opening speech at Somerset has evoked many compliments and the State press has commended the Governor for his devotion to Democratic principles. Governor McCreary has a tremendous personal following which never fails to support him no matter what office he may seek. They will follow his lead in November and every man of them will put his stamp
under the Democratic emblem.What the Democrats Have Done.
Here are some of the progressive measures urged by a Democratic President and passed by a Democratic Congress:The currency system reformed and twelve Regional Reserve Banks established.A Federal Trade Commission created to investigate the conduct and practice of industrial corporations, and to aid the Department of Justice in the persecution of offenders.The Clayton Anti-Trust Act which provides for guilt of individuals connected with corporations convicted of violating the anti-trust laws, limits interlocking directorates, prohibits holding companies which lessen competition, prevents exclusive and tying contracts, liberalizes laws relating to injunction and contempt and exempts
from prosecution under anti-trust laws
agricultural, horticultural, fraternal
and labor organizations.Act repealing provisions of the Panama Canal law exempting from payment of toll American vessels engaged in coastwise shipping of the UnitedStates.
The Alaskan Railroad law providing the Government construction and operation of 1,000 miles of railroad with telegraph and telephone lines, from the lower Pacific coast to Interior waters and mineral region of Alaska at a cost not to exceed $35,000,000.Laws placing on a war footing the volunteer militia and naval militia of the States subjecting them in time of war to the call of the signal corps of the army.Law regulating cotton future sales or stock exchanges, providing a tax of two cents a pound on sales for future delivery, unless actually delivered under conditions and grades established by the Department of Agriculture.The reform of the tariff.
The income tax put on the statute book.Amendment to Panama Canal Act admitting to American registry foreign ships of American ownership to engage in overseas and South American trade.Emergency currency act permitting
banks of national currency associations to issue circulating notes up to 125
per cent of their unimpaired capital and surplus and making available to banks of the country more than $1,- 000,000,000 of emergency currency.Law creating in the Treasury Department a Bureau of War Risk Insurance, appropriating $5,000,000 to insure ships of American registry against hazards of the European war.Resolutions appropriating $2,750,000 for protection and transportation of American citizens stranded in European war zones and authorizing the American Red Cross Society to charter a ship of foreign register and fly the American flag.Governor Beckham and Senator Camden, the Democratic nominees for the United States Senate, heartily approve these measures and if elected will continue to support President Wilson's wise and patriotic policies.If Augustus E. Wilson or Burton Vance, the Republican and Progressive nominees are elected they will vote to destroy the labor of the Democrats in Congress, and put every possible obstacle in the way of the President.It is the patriotic duty of every Kentucky Democrat to vote the straight ticket in November.Mr. Bryan has published over his signature in the Commoner an editorial reviewing Governor Beckham's political career and strongly endorsing his candidacy for the Senate. No higher compliment could be paid any man than to have the friendship of William Jennings Bryan, because he himself is a pure man and a patriot and he only stands for those men who are clean, able and loyal to the party principles. In all the years that Mr.
Bryan has been in public life battling for the great ideas that are now the very foundation of democracy, Mr.
Beckham has been his staunch supporter and defender. Governor Beckham, in his speech at the Masonic Temple, in Louisville, stated that if elected to the Senate he would stand by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and hold up their heads in the brave battle they are making for the rights of the people.Secretary Win J. Bryan has pointed out how useless it is for Democrats to say that they approve of everything President Wilson has done unless they translate their words into deeds by voting for the Democratic nominees for the Senate and for Congress in November. The men who pretend to be an admirer of the President and a supporter of his policies and then for any reason refuses to give him the votes he needs in Congress to pass his bills, reflects on his own intelligence and sincerity. The President has many broad plans to improve conditions everywhere and bring prosperity to the people. If the country gives him a Republican House or Senate these laws will never be enacted and the President will sit idly in the White House helpless with his hands tied.
Put your stamp under the Democratic Rooster on the 3rd of November and you will do more to comfort and hearten President Wilson than by any other act that you can perform.MARTIN COUNTY

HANDMADE GARTERS.

They Are a Chic Note in Milady's Lingerie Outfit.Dainty handmade garters are a part of the smart woman's lingerie outfit.
Some have garters to match or harmonize with each of their various sets of underwear. The garters are of the same color as the ribbon used in the lingerie, which also is in a tone similar to that of the gown.A pair of ribbon garters which are a little out of the ordinary can be made in this way: Cover the elastic with yellow satin ribbon, which should be just wide enough to reach over the elastic when folded. The two edges of the ribbon are overlapped togetherThousands All Over Country Responding to
"SOS" Wireless Sent Out by ChurchesGO TO CHURCH!
Think for one minute what this world would be without churches. Are you doing your part to support them by your attendance? In recent years there has been a surprising falling off in church attendance figures. People stayed away from church—some because they had lost faith, but the great number simply because they had become apathetic. It was time that this apathy ceased. And it has to a large extent. With the advent of the GO TO CHURCH! movement there has been a splendid awakening all over the country. Religion had only been dormant.The GO TO CHURCH! call found a ready response. New churches have sprung up in many quarters. The old churches, which for some time just were remarkable for their empty pews, suddenly took on new life. The pews were filled. Men and women who had not been to church in a decade came back to the fold.
They brought with them others.THE CHURCHES SENT OUT A "S O S" WIRELESS. NEWS-

WEBBVILLE.

After spending three weeks on East Fork and having a horse and buggy at my command, I drove almost every day from 8 to 15 miles and talked with a great many about Beckham, Camden and Fields and the temperance election, and many did not know that in November we voted by popular vote for U. S. Senator. Most of them thought we would have a walk-over with Fields, so there is very little interest being taken in the election, and while I believe we will carry the State by forty to fifty thousand if we get the people out to vote, I really believe the chairman of every county and chairman of every precinct ought to have circulars printed and get out and stir up the voters to go to the polls and vote. Then there is no danger, for I think this is one of the most important elections we ever have had, and all we need is just to get the voters out. They will vote all right when we get them to the polls.

It is very important, I think, this year to get Beckham, Camden and Fields elected, for they are with President Wilson with all his measures and will help him greatly and to put Beckham with Ollie James in the U. S. Senate we will have men there to compete with any of them.

I was all over Garner, both Fork, East Fork, Grassland, right hand fork of Bear Creek, and at Oatlandsburg and Ashland and the people are all right. The only thing is to wake them up and get them out.

I will be here three weeks. Intended to go to Catlettsburg, Cherokee, Blaine, then to Elliott county, then home to vote.

Crop are the finest I ever saw in Boyd and Lawrence and in part of Carter. I am sick for Sunday School, League and to hear Bro Keith preach. I have been away four weeks, heard one sermon and have not been where there is a Sunday School. None at Garner on East Fork, none here, Louisa is the best town in the State, I think.

WINTER STORING OF THE SWEET POTATO CROP.

For the benefit of your readers, says a correspondent to Home and Farm, I will try to tell in a plain, farmer-like way, how to keep sweet potatoes.

To keep sweet potatoes well and in good condition, they must be well matured before they are dug, carefully hauled, well dried or cured before they are stored, and kept at a uniform temperature of 80 to 85 degrees during the time they are being cured, and reducing the temperature gradually to 55 degrees after the potatoes are cured.

To keep sweet potatoes well the tubers should be dug, if possible, before the vines are killed by the frost. Handle them carefully, avoid bruising and cutting, place them in the baskets as picked up, carry the baskets to the storehouse, and empty them carefully into a box, barrel or a firm receptacle. If the potatoes are to be kept in large quantities, a house should be built for this purpose, above the ground, with walls very warm to keep out frost and save fuel. Erect bins to hold 50 to 100 bushels, four to six feet deep.

These bins should be elevated a foot above the floor, and leave a space of several inches between the bin and wall on every side, make bottom and sides of bin tight to exclude air. There should be at least one ventilator in the roof above to allow the steam to pass off readily. From the time of storing until cold weather, give plenty of ventilation, keeping a slow, steady fire in the middle of the room to drive out the dampness.

The most critical time is when the potatoes are going through what is called "the process of sweating" and at this time they need very close attention and proper ventilation. When cold weather sets in close up tightly and keep a steady temperature of about 60 degrees.

After having gone through the "sweating" process, the potatoes may be covered with dirt, or blankets, to keep them from shriveling by contact with the hot air from the stove. A slow, steady fire is continually necessary. When the weather is moderate, the temperature may be modified by opening the doors.

By this method I have kept sweet potatoes through the winter and sold them in the city markets in the spring, after they had experienced an cold weather as we ever have in the Ohio valley.

In order to keep sweet potatoes successfully, I have found three things essential: first, they must be stored as soon as dug, or very soon after, second, they must be kept at an even temperature of 55 to 60 degrees; third, they must have a dry atmosphere.

Sweet potatoes may be kept usually in any ordinary dwelling house or room where there is a fire during the day, by observing the proper methods. Practice good, sound, tight barrels (never salt or sugar barrels); dry the barrels thoroughly in the sun and wind, and tighten the hoops well. Get good, sound potatoes, just dug, fresh from the ground. Pack the potatoes carefully in the barrels without bruising the potatoes, and place the barrels in a corner of a room or basement, where there is a fire every day. Cover the potatoes with paper, and over the paper place a layer of garden soil an inch deep. You must understand that this room or basement must never get cold enough to freeze. After doing this, it is best to let the potatoes alone, carefully taking out the tubers you wish to use from time to time, then carefully replacing the cover. I will say here that the smaller potatoes keep better than the larger ones therefore it is best to select the medium-size tubers for those you wish to keep the longest, and use the largest first.

There is a safe rule I have used for years to know whether a sweet potato was ripe enough to dig or not. A potato is ripe enough to be dug, when, after breaking one in two, the exposed broken surfaces dry in a few minutes, but if the broken surfaces remain moist the potato is not yet ripe.

When Your Back Aches

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Louisa women know how the aches and pains that often come, when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, are frequent indications of weak kidneys and should be checked in time. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. They attack kidney diseases by striking at the cause. Here's proof of their merit in a Louisa woman's words:

Mrs. Emma Marcum, Lock Avenue, Louisa, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a great deal of good after everything else had failed. I had backaches and pains throughout my body. My appetite was poor and I was nervous. Finally a neighbor advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I did. They made me feel better in every way."

Write for all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Marcum had. Foster-McBarn, Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Those who attend the night services of the M. E. Church would be glad to see a good street light in front of that building.

A NEW APPLE PRODUCT.

In view of the fact that the apple crop in this part of the country is unusually large the following brief article from the Courier-Journal is worthy of attention by raisers of this valuable and wholesome fruit.

The United States Department of Agriculture, after a series of experiments covering several months, has devised a new form of table syrup made from apple juice.

"The department has applied for a public service patent which will make the discovery common property of any eldermill owner who may wish to manufacture and sell the syrup. As described in a dispatch from Washington the product is of a clear ruby or amber color of about the consistency of maple syrup. It has a distinct fruity aroma and special flavor of its own which is about the same as the taste of the substance which exudes from baked apples. It may be used in much the same way that other syrups are used in household cooking and as a concomitant for griddle cakes, cereals and the like.

"Seven gallons of ordinary cider, it is stated, will make one gallon of the syrup. The department is now engaged in a series of tests to determine the cost of manufacturing it on a commercial scale. At the same time the Government cooking experts are experimenting with it in cooking and will shortly issue recipes for its use in various ways and for taking advantage of its distinctive flavor in novel dishes. The department regards it as of much importance to apple growers as a means of utilizing their culls and excess apples.

"The new apple product should be a welcome addition to the list of table syrups. Doubtless it will appeal strongly to the taste of many consumers. The department's description of it reads good, and if it comes up to the specifications it should become, immediately and immensely popular."

ton, W. Va.—The list of fatalities in the coal mines of West Virginia for the month of September has been issued by Earl A. Henry, of the Department of Mines, and shows that thirty miners lost their lives in this State last month, a decrease of two from the records of the previous month.

The list also shows that falls of coal were responsible for sixteen deaths, nine in cars, three in the mine, one to electrocution, and one by a railroad car at the tipple. The letter accompanying the fatal list Chief Henry calls attention to the fact that many of these accidents have been caused by the carelessness of the men themselves—a lack of discipline on the part of the employees being responsible—and urges that both operators and miners co-operate in an effort to reduce the number of accidents to a minimum. Mine foremen are especially asked to give more attention to conditions at working faces and insist upon proper timbering.

The Horse Creek Land & Mining Co. will build a railroad in Duval district of Lincoln county, W. Va. for the purpose of developing a 12,000-acre survey of coal land which is owned by the company and located on Peter Cave Fork, upon the big divide between Big Horse Creek and Mud River. Construction will begin at the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway's line, which leads up Big Horse Creek, and it will be extended up Peter Cave Fork in sections of about three miles long. The first section of that length is all that will be completed at this time, as it will accommodate the coal which is now under lease. Extensions will be made as rapidly as the coal is leased and mining operations are begun. It is probable that the line will be built as far as Mud River within a year, this being a total of 10 miles, when it furnishes an outlet for about 30,000 acres of high-grade steam and domestic coal.

Mrs. Mary Ann Buskirk, one of Logan county's best known and most highly respected residents, died suddenly of heart failure at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Walker, in Aracoma, Mrs. Buskirk was spending the day with her daughter, having left her home here in the morning in apparent good health.

Her seizure was due to excitement caused by an accident on the Draper coal tipple. Her son-in-law, Charles Walker, is employed on the tipple and when a mine car broke loose and rushed down the incline, her fears for his safety caused her to jump up with a start. A moment later she collapsed, and all efforts to revive her failed. Mrs. Buskirk was the widow of J. B. Buskirk, and before her marriage in 1872 was Miss Mary Ann Clark. She was born March 22, 1853.—Logan Democrat.

The largest apple grown this year in east Virginia was exhibited at the Abel county court house by J. T. Sowards, of Culoden, who is a jurymen. The apple weighed twenty-one ounces. Last year Mr. Sowards cultivated an apple which weighed twenty-six ounces. He said there may be larger apples in his trees as he didn't look far before he found the one brought to court.

Mr. Sowards declares that the part of Cabell county about Culoden is the finest apple country in the state. He has a large orchard and many other farmers in that vicinity are making a comfortable income on their apples.

Some Wayne county fellows named John, James, Charles and Clint Bockock met two young men from Huntington and according to court charges, proceeded to cudgel them unmercifully with brass knuckles. Both of the men, who were assaulted had their jaws broken and were otherwise badly injured probably fatally. Their names we have not yet learned. Bockocks, whom it would appear set in to clean things up, are now languishing behind the bars of the county jail, sadder but wiser men. Jail was not allowed them. The assault occurred about dark Tuesday evening.—Ashland Independent.

Fairmont, W. Va.—The West Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed this afternoon after reading the following ministerial appointments: Huntington Dist. G. W. Bent, Supt. Ceredo-Kenova, William Fallon; Ft. Gay, I. A. Cantfield; Huntington, First, J. W. Egle, Gaymansville, J. A. Lewis; West Huntington, O. U. Marple; Logan, R. H. Skaggs; Omar, A. J. Workman; Matewan, J. D. Johnson; Milton-Barboursville, A. M. Grimes.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—Fourth-class postmasters appointed in West Virginia as the result of civil service examinations include L. Ferne La Pon at Walleville, Monroe county, to succeed F. B. Bradley; Alfred E. Young at Alta, Greenbrier county, to succeed Eva Young; Arthur L. Fisher at Frankford, Greenbrier county, to succeed C. H. Hanna; James T. Lambert at Wayne, Wayne county, to succeed A. B. McClure.

The two-cent rate case between the state of West Virginia and the N. & W. Railroad, is now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington. This case is set for argument at Washington on the 12th instant. Attorney General A. A. Lilly will argue the case on behalf of the State.

West Virginia Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held one of the most successful sessions in its history at Huntington last week. Mrs. Mattie Workman, Echo, W. Va., was elected Associate Grand Matron.

The town of Spencer, W. Va., was the scene of a $50,000.00 fire recently.

ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER A GUARANTEED TREATMENT

"I have arranged with the Louisa Drug Store Co. so that every sufferer from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchial Asthma in Louisa can try my treatment entirely at my risk," Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann announces. He says: "Buy a 50-cent package of my Asthmador, try it, and if it does not afford you immediate relief, or if you do not find it the best remedy you have ever used, take it back to the Louisa Drug Store Co. and they will return your money, cheerfully and without any question whatever. After seeing the grateful cases, which had been considered incurable, and which had been given up in despair, I know what it will do. I am so sure that it will do the same with others that I am not afraid to guarantee it will relieve instantaneously. The druggists handling Asthmador will return your money if you say so. You are to be the sole judge and under this positive guarantee, absolutely no risk is run in buying Asthmador." Persons living elsewhere will be supplied under the same guarantee by their local druggist or direct by Dr. R. Schiffmann, St. Paul, Minn.

ORDERS NOW COMING FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Many Factories in This Country Are Running Overtime on Big Orders.

New York, Oct. 17.—Foreign purchases of American products have grown so rapidly in the last two weeks that many manufacturers are now working their plants overtime. Others are wondering how they can take care of the tremendous added volume of business. In some parts of the country manufacturing plants are being enlarged. Specific instances of the general trade boom are found in all sections of the country.

Twelve large motor trucks, each capable of carrying from three to five tons, yesterday were placed on board the steamship Rotterdam, of the French line, for shipment to Havre. The trucks are part of an order of 199 given to the South Bethlehem Steel Company and distributed by it among different motor car manufacturers.

An order for 200,000 blue blankets for the French Government was placed in Philadelphia yesterday with a company which started a mill to produce the goods. It is understood orders for many hundred thousands more blankets, both blue and gray, will be placed. The order will be about $3 a blanket. Another Philadelphia company is rushing a contract for 100,000 cotton garments, to be shipped to the French Hospital Corps.

Helps Domestic Goods.

Apart from the foreign orders for American manufactures, necessity produced by the war's embargo is driving daily more and more manufacturers to the domestic market. The results have been in the nature of a revelation in many places. Firms that put utter dependence on the imports are finding they can get the same quality of goods in the United States.

Equally as important is the development of resources hitherto unsuspected in many quarters. Supply houses which have been relied upon to fill the demands of American houses with imports are branching into the manufacturing business with results entirely satisfactory.

Furthermore the cutting off of supplies from Europe has alienated from the continent account of many years' standing. The placing of orders that formerly went abroad has put the American manufacturers on edge. Those who already have cut into the import trade are resolved that no matter when the war ends they will not relinquish the advantage they now hold.

Therefore, the spirit of permanency is beginning to govern every branch of the new industries. Machinery, which in the first few weeks of the war was adapted to meet new conditions is being replaced with new machinery of the type used by manufacturers abroad. And the machinery is being made in America. The general business growth is getting to be like a snowball rolling down hill.

Foreign Patents For Sale.

It was learned today that manufacturers are taking steps for the acquisition of patents which have been in the control of European companies. Many patent holders, forced by their financial position, are releasing their rights in this country to American manufacturers.

It is understood the French Government has placed an order here for 150,000 pairs of shoes. Reported inquiries from foreign Governments for shoes aggregate about 1,500,000 pairs. A contract was obtained recently from Greece.

One company is said to have just closed an order for from 70,000 to 80,000 sweater suits for one of the belligerent countries.

Inquiries, understood to be from the Russian Government, have been made for 2,000 tons of lead for immediate shipments. Heavy shipments of spelter are being made to Europe, and there are continued inquiries from Russia and Great Britain for antimony.

Reports from Chicago say the export business of the Union Carbide Company is growing steadily.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mandy Huxley, wife of Silas Huxley, was born March 13, 1865, and died September 29, 1914, aged 49 years, 6 months and 16 days. Her disease baffled the skill of the physicians, but believed to be a liver trouble. She was a member of the M. F. Church, and was converted about 16 years ago and was faithful until death relieved her of her suffering. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband and six children: five boys and one girl, three brothers, one sister, and a host of relatives and friends. She was only sick a short time. She said when she was first taken that she was going to die and that she had no fixing up to do. She said she wanted to see Rev. A. H. Miller who was soon by her bedside, and said: "Told him that she wanted him to attend to her burial."

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Different Ways of Looking at Things.

Many things in this life may be set to music and may music at that—but how many are going along humming a dirge instead of an anthem. Not all of us have the means to graduate from Harvard, Yale, or Oxford, but there is a college from which all of us are most likely to graduate—The College of Hard Knocks. Fatigue, exposure and disaster are the professors; kicks, cuffs and blows, the curriculum; and the day of our graduation is the day we leave this earth.

Some sit down and cry; others turn their faces to the wall and pout; while others stand up to conquer. Happy is the bee, who, under the clouded skies looks for blossoming flowers.

First Bird—"Weary of emigration. No one to pay me for song. Only here to be shot at."

Second Bird—"I have a banquet of a thousand wheat fields; aside of forest to walk in."

First Horse—"Nothing to do but pull, pull, pull, and stand out in the cold and have heels freeze on my nose."

Second Horse—"And he gives a horse laugh and says, 'Look at that field of corn I have been permitted to live. How kind my masters are, always putting me on the nose and saying 'poor Charlie.'"

You hear people talking about other people. They say, "Just look the way they dress their hair, it's as a pyramid; just look at those hats," and so on. They think all the vessels on the sea are in bad trim except their own schooner. "On the imperfection of others, I am afraid they will kill them yet." And so it is, some people see the bright side, and others the dark.

Influence.

Not by words and action alone are we influencing those about us, but by our very presence. We never meet anyone, even in passing, that we do not receive, and in turn make an impression, either pleasant or unpleasant. Have we not often been cheered and had our thoughts diverted from our own discontent by meeting with a cheerful, happy face. Even a child has cheered me by his silvery laugh and happy face as we passed him in his play. Oh, then let us strive to have our hearts full of love and it will make our faces glad and happy and our passing influence will be good. And if this grace be ours we cannot hide it anymore than the roses can suppress their perfume. We were once much impressed with this beautiful truth. We met a pretty young lady with a lovely box of roses. In passing we only saw her beauty, but as we went on in the opposite direction from her, the scent of the roses filled the air quite a distance. So is the fragrance from a conserved, loving heart.

We Are All Poor.

How much are you worth? Measured by the tape line of this world's valuation you are rich or poor, worth much or little, according to the dollars you own. Measured by the rule of heaven, and you are worth just what you can take with you into the next life. A man who possesses in this life a million dollars is not worth a cent one moment after he is dead. Bank books are out of place in a dead man's coffin. Shrouds have no pockets. All the wealth of the universe could not purchase a single moment of time or help a man to retain his hold upon his earthly riches for one hour. You are worth whatever of good deeds you have to your credit on the other side of life. If you have been honest, upright, faithful, full of kindness, and have built your character along these lines, you are rich. If you have been narrow-minded, covetous, grasping, half-hearted, self-seeking, you are poor indeed, even though the wealth of a gold mine is yours.

It is said that a man cannot possess anything that is better than a good woman nor anything worse than a bad one.

If children heard only pleasant tones, commendable words, good grammar, the music, true harmony, in their early childhood, they would acquire habits, not only of speech, but of feeling and conduct that would be prophecies of right action in maturity.

What kind of a disposition does the mother expect her children to have when, because it accidentally struck itself against some article of furniture she bids it, "Hit the nasty old thing for hitting baby." Or when the pet kitten in self-defense, scratches its little tormenter, she stimulates it to pound, drag and kick it for revenge.

There are some people who apparently live more for the admiration of others than for those of their own homes, and have a smile for all except the ones that should be nearest and dearest to them, and indeed they could take no surer plan to wreck their own happiness or the happiness of the home.

When you have spoken the word, it reigns over you; but while it is not spoken, you reign over it.

HOW SHOULD WE VOTE?

In a few days we are all expected to determine that question at the polls. When Abraham Lincoln was first elected, the American country was greatly surprised. The rebellion that had been brooding for thirty years, over the extension of slavery, burst out. Lincoln became the great champion to liberate the people. When the election came again the people's minds were made up that Lincoln was as safe, if not the safest, man to re-elect. It is considered by the great mass of our people regardless of parties, that Lincoln proved to be the man for that time. Those who once hated him speak of him today as a great man. Let us all learn a lesson from the past.

The present Congress and Senate have stood by the President on all questions our people are united in trying to keep out of the war. Let every voter view this matter carefully. Don't try new, untried things just now. Let good enough alone. Act wise as in the days of Lincoln, return the men to power who understand the questions of today, and are in accord with the present administration. Great questions may arise on account of the foreign war that must be settled for. Keep cool and vote right. OLD VOTER.

STUBBLE AFTER HARVESTING.

Land in growing small grain is well shaded. This shading, with the protection furnished by the crop from winds, amounts in practice to a very effective mulch so that loss of water from the soil by direct evaporation is almost reduced to a minimum.

The only loss is the amount taken up by the plants. When grain is harvested the soil is left in condition to lose water from two sources. First and most important is the loss of water through the growth of weeds, second, on the heavier soils there is some loss by evaporation from the surface which causes contraction of the soil followed by more or less severe cracking. This permits the air to penetrate farther and thus dry out the soil to a considerable depth. Weeds, however, are usually the most severe source of loss at this period.

To check the losses which occur from these causes it is only necessary to stir the surface of the land with a disk harrow, double disking by lapping half, or the use of some of the heavier spring-tooth harrows or cultivators. Anything, in fact, which will thoroughly stir the surface and kill the weeds will effect the purpose. These processes not only kill the weeds and prevent cracking, but they also protect the tilth of the soil so that plowing can be done more leisurely with the soil in better physical condition.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The thirteenth division of the Lawrence County Teachers' Association convened at Louisa Saturday, Oct. 17th, at 10.00 a. m. Miss Elizabeth Lester presiding. The secretary, D. C. Hecher, being absent, Nora Roberts was appointed secretary pro tem.

Opening song, "America," was sung by the Association, then followed by a quartette by Messrs. Trent, Atkins, Cain and Thompson. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Trent, of the M. E. Church. Scripture reading and prayer. The quartet then sang "Work, Watch and Pray."

Mr. Dock Jordan then gave a demonstration in reading, poem, "The Corn Song," using his 7th grade class of the Louisa Public School. This demonstration was very helpful and beneficial to the teachers present.

This was followed by 10 minutes discussion of various methods used in teaching this important branch.

Next Mr. G. M. Copley spoke on "Three Sources for the Teaching of Oral and Written Spelling."

An abundance of good things was partaken of by members, visitors and all present, their appreciation of same being voiced in strongest terms.

The afternoon session began by singing "My Old Kentucky Home" by the Association. The quartet then sang "Keep the Step."

Prof. Kennison's "Talk on English" was listened to with interest by all. Emphasis was placed on pronunciation and syntax. Study of English essential.

Suffered Twenty-One Years-- Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Rapids, La.

SOMETHING NEVER TRIED IN STATE OF KENTUCKY.

Kentucky bluegrass pastures are considered the finest in the world, and so they were, originally, and many of them are today, especially those thousands of acres that have never been plowed. But much of our fine pasture land has been cropped with hemp and tobacco and then turned back to grass. Other fields have been planted to corn, wheat, meadow and back to grass again. If we stop to think, all of these crops, with the exception of clover, have fed on the fertility of the land. Naturally the soil is that much poorer. We have all seen bluegrass pastures that could be better, the exception being the reverse, but how can they be improved?

Virginia is solving this very problem and doing it satisfactorily by the application of ground limestone and acid phosphate or the cheaper form of ground rock phosphate, which is slower to act, but is more lasting. We frequently see natural bluegrass land foul with sheep sorrel and weeds and with the grass standing up on stilts-like, showing the soil is sour. Lime would correct this, although limestone lies underneath. And then bluegrass loves phosphates. This combination of lime and phosphates made the bluegrass region what it is, our soils are now deficient in both lime and phosphates and they must be put back to restore original conditions. Virginia is doing this, even on her steep hillside pastures. Who in Kentucky has the courage to try it?—Kentucky Farmer.

Mrs. Tillie Jones, wife of Green Jones, fell dead while cooking dinner at her home at Camden City Friday, 1914, after having been ill Sunday at Frozen Creek.

ALFALFA AS CATTLE FEED.

Under the title "Feeding Baby Beef" the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station has issued a bulletin giving in much detail the results of some experiments in fattening calves for the market.

Five lots of calves were fed on different forage and grain rations during the winter of 1911-12, and in the following winter a duplication of the test was made. The calves were spring calves, put into the feed lots shortly after weaning in the fall and fed until after the middle of June. They were about 14 months old when sold. The average weight on the market was about 850 pounds. The average selling price was $68.45 per calf.

The net results of the experiment, as summed up by the bulletin, are that a ration composed of alfalfa, silage and corn gave the fastest and cheapest gain and the most profit per calf. A ration of alfalfa, prairie hay and corn ranked second. The rations containing alfalfa gave much better results than any ration which did not contain alfalfa. Silage had a much higher value when fed with alfalfa than when fed in rations without alfalfa. Cottonseed cake was profitable when fed in rations that did not contain alfalfa, but was not profitable when fed in rations with alfalfa. The rations containing cottonseed cake, however, gave only two-thirds as much profit as those containing alfalfa, from which it is concluded that cottonseed cake is not a profitable substitute for alfalfa.

The bulletin is of timely importance because of the general movement for the expansion of the cattle industry and the growing interest in alfalfa as a farm staple. The lesson impressed is that cattle and alfalfa form a good combination.

THE LESSON OF DIVERSIFIED FARMING.

The cotton situation in the South can be turned to many good advantages. The boll weevil has left more of crop rotation in its march from Texas towards Georgia. On plantations, thought to be ruined, more money is being made from cattle, hogs and poultry than came from the cotton crops.

Cheap cotton should give cheap cottonseed meal and thus encourage stock feeding for the high priced meat markets. In fact, feeders all through the central, as well as the southern states, may well investigate the economy of this feed. The experiment stations have worked out the gains in weight and advantages in dairying from rations containing the protein-rich meal from cotton seeds.

For the same reasons, we should have a competition for high land prices. Oil of splendid food value, as linseed and nut oils, as olive oil, when well refined, is pressed from the cotton seed. It already has a large sale in the form of hard substitutes, so linseed and nut oils.

We are fast learning that diversified farming is not only good for the land, but is also the best insurance against the unexpected in the market. No state or community can afford to rely on one crop. It is taking the boll weevil, tariff off of sugar, and, finally, the war in Europe, to teach the South the lesson of its wonderful diversified farming opportunities.—Herald.

HATCHER MAKING HARD FIGHT AGAINST LANGLEY IN TENTH.

Tom Hatcher, of Pikeville, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Tenth district, called on Governor McCreary recently. Mr. Hatcher, who has shown his efficiency and ability as an organizer in managing campaigns for others, is making a name for himself in the Big Sandy country, and he believes he will win. So do others up there, which is more significant.

Congressman Langley left Washington a week ago to get back into his district, which shows that Hatcher has his interest in the situation, at least.

Mr. Hatcher said the Bull Moose ticket will have a large following on the eastern side of the Kentucky mountains, and he is organizing to get out the full Democratic strength. In addition to this he has prepared some campaign literature for wide distribution, that will keep the round representatives from the Tenth busy explaining from now until election day.

GIVE "PROMISSORY JOHN" A REST.

(W.P. Walton, in Lexington Herald) "Promissory John," as Mr. Langley is known, for his propensity to promise anybody anything without the remotest prospect of keeping his promise, has for years been drawing the Congressional salary under false pretense of earning it. In one of his speeches to his constituents the other day Mr. Langley said that he had worked night and day for his district and until he was so worn out that he was unable to lift his feet to the street cars to carry him home. Poor fellow! It is really a cruelty to animals to impose so greatly on him, when Tom Hatcher could do ten times as much and not half try, without a word of complaint.

But let's see if Mr. Langley's statement is warranted by the facts. A heartless individual has been examining the records and finds that he was absent or failed to vote 51 times out of 81 roll calls, showing that five-eighths of the business transacted in Congress was without the representation of the Tenth district. If that amount of work makes Mr. Langley so tired he can't raise his feet, what would full duty do to him? It is horrible to contemplate. It is barbarous for the voters to continue to impose on him, and if they persist in doing so they are not the kind of people we take them to be. For goodness sake give "Promissory" John a rest and add another Democrat to the Kentucky delegation in Congress, which ought to be solidly Democratic. Give "Promissory John" a long, lingering rest.

LETCHER COUNTY AND WHITESBURG.

What is Happening in this Rich Coal Territory of Kentucky.

Whitesburg, Ky., Oct. 21.—While riding horseback near Mayking, five miles above here in this county, Aunt Polly Polley, aged 82, a veteran old woman of the county, was thrown from a horse and received what are thought to be fatal wounds. The old woman was thrown over the head of a horse, falling among stones. Both legs are said to be badly broken. She is the mother of J. B. Polley, of Mayking. The accident is deeply deplored.

A pretty wedding, though a covid-able surprise, took place at Colly, four miles from here, when Mr. James Youns, aged 23, a young farmer of Neon, was married to Miss Helva Franklin, the intelligent young 18-year-old daughter of Andrew J. Franklin, Eld. Robert Blair officiating. Only a few invited guests were present. They will live in Neon.

Saturday morning at McRoberts, in the coal fields an Italian laborer named Perry stumbled and cut to death a man named C. C. McRoberts, who had wounded another Italian that he cannot live. After the murder Perry fled down the country. He was later pursued by Judge A. B. Potter, of McRoberts. He was arrested and returned to the Whitesburg jail.

The farm home of William Polley, a Mayking farmer, was burned there yesterday, entailing a total loss. Polley and his family were en route to a church meeting when the fire started and the building was consumed. It is thought the building caught from a defective flue.

U. S. Marshal John M. Hiddle, of this city, and Marshal M. W. Allen, of Floyd county, returned here from the country having in charge four noted moonshiners of the Rockhouse Creek section, and they were tried before U. S. Commissioner Samuel Collins. All four of the moonshiners were bound over to the U. S. District court at Jackson in next month.

A few days ago Willis K. Collier, of this county, purchased a little twenty-five acre mountain farm on the headwaters of Boone's Fork. In this county, paying $6,000 therefor. It was perhaps the largest price paid for mountain farming lands in the history of the county.

The "Old Fiddlers' Contest," billed for this city Saturday night was pulled off, and an interesting time resulted. A large number of famous old fiddlers taking part. A large number of old tunes, such as "Sourwood Mountain," "Old Folks at Home," "Cumberland Gap," "Turkey in the Straw," "Bonaparte's Retreat," and others were played. Attorney R. O. Brashears, of this city, won the prize of $200 on "Bonaparte's Retreat." The next "Old Fiddlers' Contest" is to be held at Jenkins to-night. All the old fiddlers will take part.

A large number of people from this county went to Hindman Monday to hear ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham speak, also to witness the dedication of the new $51,000 hospital built by the Hindman W. C. T. U. Settlement School, dedicated the same day. A large delegation of representative people were on hand from all sections of Letcher county.

Diphtheria is said to be raging in certain sections of Letcher county especially among children, and a number of schools are closing as a result. Already several deaths have occurred. There is more or less diphtheria raging in different sections of the mountains.

PIKE COUNTY NEWS

MASONS GO TO LOUISVILLE.

Rev. E. N. Fannin, S. M. Cecil, Dr. J. H. Adkins, James Rector, Clarence Polley and other members of the Masonic lodge of Pikeville, went to Louisville to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of the Blue Lodge and Royal Arch Masons, which was held in that city Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Cecil is an officer of the Grand Lodge, and Mr. Adkins represented the Pikeville lodge, of which he is High Priest.

At the close of the ceremonies there Messrs. Fannin and Rector went to Pleasantville, Henry county, where they will be the guests of Mr. Renfro's parents for a few days. Mr. Fannin will preach the morning sermon at the M. E. Church South, in Pleasantville, on Sunday, in which service all the churches of that city will unite. They will return to Lexington Monday, where a six o'clock dinner will be given in honor of Mr. Fannin at the home of Mr. Renfro's sister, Mrs. Scott. They will return to Pikeville Tuesday, and the other masons are expected to return tomorrow.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

A series of evangelistic meetings began at the Christian Church last Tuesday evening under the direction of Rev. Bond Shaw, of Olive Hill, assisted by the pastor, Rev. G. J. Hinkle, who has now been in charge of the church at Pikeville for one year. A great deal of interest has been manifested in these meetings, and large congregations attend each service. This is the first revival this city has had in many months. Splendid music and good preaching are to be heard at each meeting, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

BROTHER VISITS UNFORTUNATE MAN.

Phil Koerper, for many years a timer of Pikeville, is perhaps the most heroic living example of what grim determination may enable one to do under a stress of misfortune. Some years ago he lost his left arm and two fingers of the right hand in a railway accident at Cleveland, Ohio, his former home. He later came to Pikeville, where he was married, and since that time he has been a resident of this place, with the exception of two years, which he recently spent at Paintsville. He was for years employed as a sheet metal worker in the John W. Hall shop here, and it has always been a wonder to Pikeville people how he could so perfectly perform his work with only one arm. Whether on the roof or in the shop, and without help, his work was equally well done, and his reputation as a skilled workman reached from one end of the valley to the other. His hair is now silvered, but his courage is yet youthful. Mr. William B. Young, a wealthy business man of Cleveland, is his half-brother, and has often asked him to come to Cleveland and spend his days at well deserved rest; but each kind invitation was refused for no other reason than his marvelous courage and hope in the future. Sickness overtook him one year ago while he was living at Paintsville, and this induced him to return to this city. He never recovered, but has spent many days at patient toil in the shop in the hope that, with labor strength would return. He was disappointed, however, and becoming more and more unable to work was forced to give up his modest home on Holler avenue about one month ago and accept the care which friends here and in Cleveland offered him. His brother in Cleveland learned of his complete breakdown, and came to Pikeville last Thursday to entreat him to return to Cleveland with his daughter Hazel. The brothers wept as they met and embraced in the lobby of the Pike hotel; but it was more the weeping that proceeds from joy, and there were no bystanders who were not similarly affected.

Koerper still refused to again visit the scene of his former misfortune, but he could not again refuse his brother's kind offers, and he will be comfortably located in a cozy little home in Pikeville, where the matter of route and grocery bills will disturb him no more.

HEALTH CAMPAIGN STARTS.

Dr. M. W. Steele, State Health Inspector of Bowling Green, with his corps of assistants opened the Pike county health campaign in the court room at Pikeville last Saturday evening, with a considerable attendance. Dr. Steele delivered a highly interesting lecture on the subject of health in the mountains, and said that diphtheria which is now gripping Pike county with deadly effect, needlessly taking the lives of many children, must be checked at all cost. He said that the spread of the disease is due mainly to the carelessness of those who come and go from the bedside of a victim without a thought of the consequences fatal to others, which is punishable under the Statute. Quarantine is perhaps the only certain means of preventing this.

The lecture was full of patient and thoughtful instruction, and was heartily approved by every physician present. Dr. Z. A. Thompson, city health officer, will make every effort to bring about the health reforms that Dr. Steele suggested, and the Boards of Health and Education of the county with the Fiscal Court will do their utmost for the county at large.

The campaign party is spending this week on Shelby, Marrowbone and Elk-horn creeks, and next week will cross over to the eastern side of Pike county. The exact dates and places for this campaign will be printed in these columns last week, and everyone who has the opportunity should attend one of more of these meetings and hear the interesting lectures.

CUPID IN PIKE.

Cupid has been unusually active in Pike county during the past week, as seen by the following evidence taken from the records of the County Court Clerk at Pikeville. According to the record marriage permits were issued to the following:

H. M. Priest, 26, to Miss Emma Syck, 19, Coal Run, Ky.
Horace Allen, 22, to Miss Nora E. Kline, 19, Coal Run.
Frank Wright, 21, to Miss Dulcena Mullins, 17, Priddy, Ky.
James Alex. Robinson, 29, to Miss Ada Cross, Pikeville.
Hutton Justice, 29, to Miss Muttie Compton, Pikeville.
Ireland Syck, 17, to Miss Bessie Landon, 16, Zebulon, Ky.
Noah Collins, 23, to Rebecca Scott, 19, Thomas, Floyd county.
Oscar Hoop, 22, to Alice Huffman, 19, Pikeville.
Sam Unsholt, 21, to Miss Ellen Damm, 18, Shelby Creek.
Elmer Herrel, 23, to Miss Martha Gayhart, Wayland, Ky.

SUCCEEDS PARKER ON HEALTH BOARD.

The City Council of Pikeville met last Monday evening to consider several matters of business, and among other items to elect a successor to T. G. Parker, who recently resigned from the City Board of Health to accept a membership in the City Council. J. D. Francis was chosen to succeed him.

The Board of Health will meet next Monday evening to establish rules to now has considerable hold on Pikeville. Quarantine may be resorted to to effect this result; the schools may be closed, and children will no doubt be required to remain off the streets.

STRONG LECTURE.

Dr. M. W. Steele, Eastern Kentucky Health Inspector, in his second address to the people of Pike county on the subject of hookworm at the court house Tuesday evening, stated that in his opinion a high percentage of the examinations in the county would disclose the presence of hookworm. This is a very harmful disease, and the state is waging a war without quarter upon it, as it is one of the most pernicious influences known to the medical science. Dr. Steele told his hearers he was ready with his assistants to make all free examinations and said that the treatment required to cure the disease would also be furnished free to anyone applying for it.

OFFICER CRITICISED.

The Civic League at its meeting last Monday evening at the Baptist Church took occasion to severely criticize officer Sidney Trivette of the police force for his conduct during a disturbance here last Saturday night. It was charged against him that he failed to make proper arrests. Trivette claims to have acted clearly within the bounds of reason in handling the disturbance, and warrants were served on the parties connected with the breach of the public peace Monday morning; and now appears to be in a peaceable condition, whereas a slight act of misjudgment on the part of the police would probably have precipitated bloodshed and unnecessary consequences. Perhaps the matter was handled in the best and sanest way.

PIKE HOTEL RENTED.

The dining room of the Pike hotel has been closed during the past few days for repairs. A rental contract has been closed between James Hatcher, owner of the hotel, and S. T. Landolt and son, of Huntington, whereby the latter parties will succeed Hatcher as managers, and the new parties will assume charge of the hotel November 1st. The institution will be conducted on the same plan as formerly.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A long standing affection of the eyes brought total blindness a second time to Morell Morris, general manager for the Pikeville Wholesale Grocery Co., last Sunday night. As sight was partially restored after the first attack, his physicians hope by proper treatment to restore it again. He will be treated at the John Hopkins hospital in Baltimore.

Attorney R. H. Pinner went to Wise, Va., on professional business Monday.

Dr. Stephenson spent several days of last week with relatives in South Portsmouth, Ky., returning Monday.

William Reekins, prominent West Virginia real estate owner, has been attending Circuit Court in Pikeville this week.

The infant daughter of Milton Layne died last Sunday of diphtheria. Many other deaths from this disease have occurred in the rural districts of the county recently.

Uncle Ed Thompson, an aged negro, died of dropsy at his home on Choler creek last Sunday.

Alex. Josselson, one of Catlettsburg's leading business men, was in Pikeville last Monday.

Dr. R. Williams has been spending the past few days in Louisville attending the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge F. & A. M. and the Royal Arch Chapter.

J. P. Morris, of John's Creek, came to Pikeville last Monday to visit his son, Morrell Morris, who was suddenly stricken blind.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Justice left last Monday for Cincinnati, where they are spending several days sightseeing.

Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was Miss Josephine Ford, was here for a brief visit to relatives last Monday.

The Pike hotel, on Second street, is undergoing some changes. The quartered oak panels in the lobby of the hotel are now done in white, and in many ways the building is being beautified. The complete work of rearrangement will probably be finished by November 1st.

One of the handsomest residence buildings to be found in the valley is the new judge's residence now being built beside the court house and in front of the new jail, which is also in process of construction. Its design is one of the most pleasing models to be found in Eastern Kentucky. Several weeks yet will be required to finish it and the jail.

The grand jury continues its session on the election bribery investigation, and will probably hold until after the November election.

A new barber shop has opened in the Big Sandy hotel.

G. T. Adkins and W. H. McCoy, of Jenkins, are in town this week attending court.

Capt. E. F. Freese, of Louisa, is spending the week at Pikeville.

John A. Bentley returned to his home in Pikeville Wednesday after an absence of several days.

CATLETTSBURG AND BOYD COUNTY NEWS.

An Interesting Letter From Our Neighboring County.

What are public works of the Commonwealth of Kentucky?

Our Constitutional writers are like our law makers, they leave much of their work for our courts to patch out. The Constitution Sec. 233 says: "Persons convicted of felony and sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary shall be continued in labor within the walls of the penitentiary, and the General Assembly shall not have the power to authorize employment of convicts elsewhere except upon the public works of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, or when during the term of the prison building, they cannot be continued in the penitentiary."

The Legislature of last winter believing they could see the end of the contract system and having in view a plan to keep our convicts employed and to further the noble cause of road building throughout the Commonwealth framed and passed the act dealing with what are public works of the state. In this they define that all public roads leading from county seat to county seat are public works of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. And if they are not, what are?

The Lawrence County Fiscal Court, being a progressive body and favoring all things for the betterment of their people and as a compliment to their Representative who labored and fought so hard for the enactment of these measures, was first to apply for state aid and now comes and is first to apply for the aid of convict labor.

Their application being properly indorsed by the State Highway Commissioners and duly presented to the Prison Board, who immediately ordered Warden Wells to select twenty able-bodied men to be sent under a proper guard to Lawrence county for service. The Warden refused to comply with said order until the Supreme Court of the state had passed upon the acts of 1914. Thus we shall soon see "what are public works of the Commonwealth of Kentucky," according to a judicial mind. We are told that the court in order to ascertain the exact intent or meaning of the Constitutional delegates are looking up the arguments in the journals of that body.

Judge F. H. Hopkins, of Prestonsburg, is the only surviving member of this immediate section. Those who entered most enthusiastically into debate were J. Proctor Knott, Simon

"After Using Peruna Many Years"

I can say that Peruna is a fine remedy for catarrh and all cases of the tonsils and many other ailments. It is manufactured by a well-known company, who are perfectly reliable.

A Tonic with light laxative qualities.

I have noticed a great many others taking this remedy, and I have yet failed to see a case where the continued use of Peruna did not complete a satisfactory cure in reasonable time.

Boliver Buckner, J. Guthrie Coke, Col. L. T. Moore, and others who are all dead.

Our Constitution which it might have been a shining light twenty-three years ago, when it was adopted, is now obsolete, and one of the state's greatest necessities is an organic law. The evolution of the various interests and industries, as well as our temperance laws, make stronger demands for a new constitution.

Mr. Charles Russell, Special Deputy Bank Examiner, gives notice that he is paying 25 per cent to all depositors of the Citizens Bank and Trust Co.

Quite a number went to Ashland Friday night to hear the Cathedral Choir which was the first number of the Lyceum course.

The city of Catlettsburg now enjoys a free mail delivery, a thing much needed in a town so long drawn out. The business center may not think as favorable of the plan as the outlying territory.

Mrs. Todd Ross, of North Catlettsburg, was run down by an automobile and very painfully hurt one night last week. This murderous party was running at a very high rate of speed and without lights, thereby violating the law in several ways. As soon as the police saw what had occurred, the villain left Mrs. Ross unconscious, lying upon the ground, and sped towards Ashland, no doubt anxious to cross the river, as the machine was from Iron-ton.

Burglars entered Headley's locksmith shop on Saturday night and pilfered four guns and quite a quantity of shoe leather, as Mr. Headley runs a shoe repair shop in connection.

Mr. George Burgess and wife, of Wayne, W. Va., were here attending the birthday celebration of Capt. J. M. Ferguson, of Ashland, and visiting his sister, Mrs. D. S. Martin, of this city.

Mr. James Hatcher, owner and proprietor of the Pike hotel, is here on a business mission, and looking at some points in regard to the establishment of a dairy at Pikeville.

There will be a joint meeting of trustees and members of the public schools of the county held in the court house here on the 30th inst. All teachers and trustees are expected to be present. Prof. Barker has arranged for Supt. Burdette Hamlett and many of the most prominent teachers of the state to be present and address the meeting.

The A. Mims Hardware Co. has been sold to a stock company composed of John M. Sweeney and associates of Huntington, and H. H. Harris and associates of this city. The business is to be continued at the present site as the new company has leased the house for a period of five years. H. H. Harris is to be the president of the new company, which spells success. Mr. Harris since he came to Catlettsburg, has been one round of commercial success and we bespeak for the new company a bright future.

It is believed that Calvin Warren, an insurance agent of Logan, O., committed self destruction by jumping from the Ashland wharf into the river. There was at the time about a ten-foot rise in the river and still rising, so the body will not likely be recovered at this time, though a search is being made.

Mrs. Anthony H. Williams, S. Martin Cecil, H. Rees, and others stopped over here en route to the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of F. & A. M. which met in Louisville Tuesday last.

Worshipful Master John Coddin will represent Hampton Lodge at the Grand Lodge meeting this week.

We read the optimistic pages of the trade journals of the country and then the interviews of the great iron master Charles Schwab, who tells us of the millions of dollars worth of orders placed with our manufacturers for supplies for Great Britain, France, Belgium, etc., for sheet steel, blankets to cover the whole French army, barbed wire, auto trucks, shoes, cotton goods, horses, cattle, mules, flour, etc. The French Government places an order with the South Bethlehem Steel Co. for one-half million boxes barbed Co. for another firm gets an order for 1,000,000 wood blankets. These orders are all backed by gold coin. Trade everywhere has received a quickening impulse and then to listen to one of those two by four politicians try to convince the stupid voter of the very dangerous condition of business in this best governed nation of the earth. It is nauseating, sickening and would turn the stomach of a turkey-bizzard.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or a buzzing in your ears, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is out of ten cases caused by Catarrh of the Eustachian Tube, which is nothing but an inflammation of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars to anyone who can cure a case of Catarrh of the Eustachian Tube. Send for circular.
